For Immediate Release

4 December 2024

Mmabana Arts, Culture, and Sport Foundation Presents the Ultimate Talent Search 2024: A Stage for Unleashing North West's Creative Potential

Mahikeng – The Mmabana Arts, Culture, and Sport Foundation is excited to announce the grand finale of the Ultimate Talent Search 2024, a dynamic initiative dedicated to discovering and fostering exceptional talent within the North West province.

This programme, driven by MACSF's commitment to nurturing artistic excellence, has provided a platform for aspiring musicians across the province to showcase their unique abilities, engage with industry professionals, and contribute to the cultural enrichment of their communities.

Aligned with MACSF's mandate, the Ultimate Talent Search aims to uncover and celebrate local talent, open doors to career opportunities in the music industry, and promote diversity through artistic expression.

Auditions held across the province's four districts have produced an impressive lineup of finalists:

- Dr Ruth Segomotsi Mompati District: James Molehe, Bokamoso Motlele, Ntsikelelo Mathe
- Bojanala District: Thabang Ramokoka, Koketso Ngwetsane, Gomotsang Seitumeleng
- Dr Kenneth Kaunda District: Nontsikelelo Faku, Bryson Appels, Tshepo Seremane
- Ngaka Modiri Molema District: Omphemetse Makau, Keaotshepa Morake, Phemelo Ramonye

The competition will culminate in an exciting three-day event at the Klerksdorp Auditorium in Dr. Kenneth Kaunda District. The top 12 contestants will perform live on 14 December 2024 alongside a National star, and the top three winners will be unveiled during the grand finale.

Thabo Mabe, MACSF's acting Chief Executive Officer, shared his enthusiasm: "The Ultimate Talent Search is more than a competition; it's a celebration of the creativity, diversity, and cultural vitality of the North West province. We are eager to see the incredible talents that will shine on this platform."
